Statement from Executive Director Tim Paulson

The June 3rd election results in San Francisco demonstrated that when workers, community activists, and elected officials decide to work together, we all win. The San Francisco Labor Council applauds the passage of Measures A, B and G and the defeat of Measure F.

Measure A is a victory for teachers. Measure B is victory for the workers who run this City. Passing G and defeating F is a victory for the residents and workers of the neglected Bayview-Hunters Point neighborhoods.

The Labor Council is proud that San Francisco workers and voters decided to make the right choices for progress.

This wasn't about Chris Daly or Gavin Newsom or who was more progressive. This was about preserving San Francisco's heritage as an inclusive community. The Labor Council is proud that San Francisco voters affirmed that education, public service, and housing be issues we endorse.

Tomorrow we have a better platform to move this city in a new direction for workers.

The San Francisco Labor Council represents 100,000 working men and women who are members of 150 unions in San Francisco. The Labor Council runs extensive field campaign operations for endorsed candidates and initiatives.
