San Francisco Labor Council Endorses Kim-Shree Maufas, Hydra Mendoza, and Emily Murase for School Board

(San Francisco, CA – September 21, 2010) Last night, the San Francisco Labor Council officially endorsed Kim-Shree Maufas, Hydra Mendoza, and Emily Murase for San Francisco School Board. The Labor Council, representing more than 100,000 workers in the city of San Francisco, joins the United Educators of San Francisco and the San Francisco Democratic Party in endorsing the three candidates.

“As our schools face staggering budget cuts, these three strong leaders are San Francisco’s best choice to lead us through these difficult times,” says Labor Council Executive Director Tim Paulson. “Maufas, Mendoza, and Murase have are the consensus candidates of the teachers, the Democratic Party, and the working men and women of San Francisco. We plan on doing whatever it takes to get them elected.”

Those plans involve an impressive field operation, including thousands of shifts at nightly phone banks and weekend precinct walks through the November 2nd election. The official campaign kickoff will take place on September 25, 2010.

The San Francisco Labor Council is the local body of the AFL-CIO and was chartered in 1893 to be the coordinating regional body for labor cooperation and unity. We are a membership organization serving as a coalition of the Labor Community in San Francisco. Over 150 unions are affiliated with the SFLC, representing more than 100,000 union members and their families.
